Remembering . . .

*Remember
Then . . .*

When you think of a high school, what do you see?

This is the picture that comes to me:

A high school is people--teenagers and all.
It's assemblies and classes and a rush in the hall.

It's panic at grade cards; it's purple and white;
It's thrills and excitement that never grow old.
Suspense fills the hallways, and rivalry's keen.
All yearn for a scholarship; who will be Queen?
A high school means projects and clubs with their fun,

And everyone working till all tasks are done;
Tense moments at ball games--Will we win or not?

That "Mighty Lion" spirit means more than we thought!

What is a high school? What is its story?
We've told it here in all of its glory!

Administration

Working behind the scenes, the school board helps our school system. They guide and direct almost all school functions, making all major decisions.

Working together Mr. Zapp and Mr. Jones solved many problems. They also got the Model School Project running smoothly.

Assistant Principal: Edmund Zapp.

Principal: Loren Jones.

Memories of Leo 1973

Remember . . .

. . . Getting on the bus at 7:00 in the morning.

. . . the time you talked all mod in Math.

. . . hiding from the photographer who tried to take your picture.

. . . When you waited all afternoon in your TA's office for your TA.

Reminiscing . . .

The gatherings in the hall between mods.

All the Algebra help sessions.

About being late for TA room.

S. S.

The Senior boys in the pep session.

. . . the time you told Mr. Butler you were only BORROWING the Unipac.

. . . the day it took you an hour to find WINNIE THE POOH.

. . . when even Lava couldn't do the job.

. . . The last week of school when you had to cram for all those tests.

Recollections of . . .

. . . the last half hour till lounge, it just seemed to crawl.

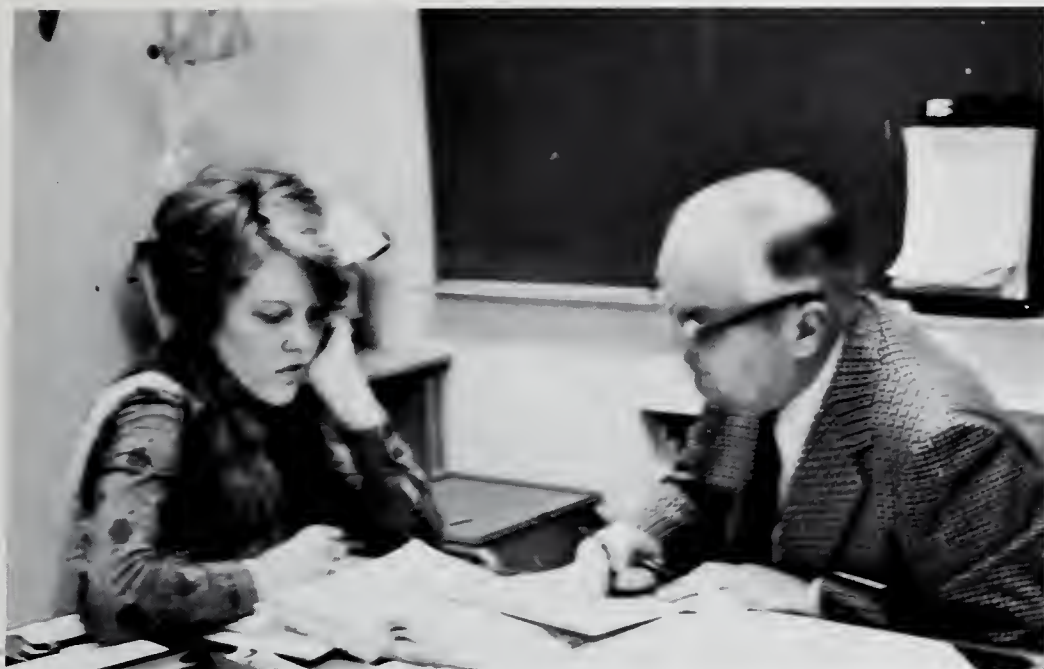

. . . the time you were 10 seconds late.

. . . the time you let out Mr. D's gerbals.

. . . the mod you didn't have a seat in the library.

. . . the Math assignment even Mr. Garman couldn't do.

. . . when the choir got a first and Mrs. Nelson couldn't believe it.

. . . all the tapes you had to listen to.

. . . Carl Schauer and his witty comments during band.

Reflections of . . .

. . . Lynn Duesing and Greg Warren enjoying one of the first warm days of Spring.

. . . Toni Surfus and Loren Klopfenstein discussing the upcoming graduation.

. . . The Senior graduation practice where the class of '73 shares one of their last few moments together.

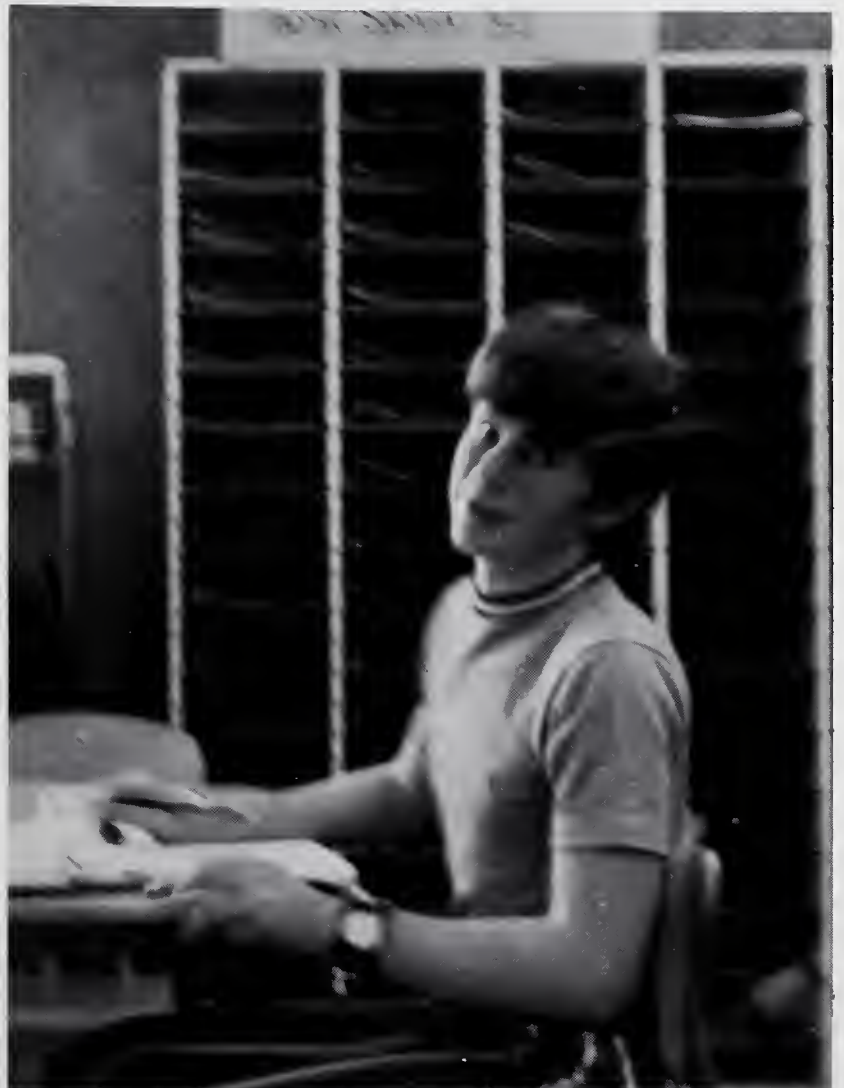

The time Mrs. Platt and Mr. Walton were discussing YOU!

The time you got the jitters serving at the banquet.

Rain dampens homecoming for fourth straight year.

Homecoming activities were opened up on Thursday night with a snake dance through Leo and a bonfire. Friday evening, October 13th, Sue Blotkamp was chosen 1972 Homecoming Queen. Also during half-time a parade was held around the track, including Homecoming Queen, senior candidates, and underclassmen representatives, followed by the floats. Freshmen won the float contest.

Steve Behm shows Mr. Walton how to light a fire while Mr. Gabet listens and learns.

Mr. Frick leads the way for the Homecoming Parade.

The Seniors pass out bubble gum from the float to the grade school kids.

Friday after school a parade was held for the grade school children. The parade consisted of floats representing each class. The floats were centered around the theme "Today is only Yesterday's Tomorrow".

Friday evening homecoming events were brought to a close when Heritage defeated a mighty Leo team.

The "Mighty Lions" in action.

Colour My World With Love

The prom was a gala affair held at the Baer Field Hilton Inn on May 5th. King Ron Bollier and Queen Karen Lederman were crowned after a delicious meal. Following the coronation the band, "Canyon", played many favorites, including "Colour My World With Love", the prom's theme.

Jim Greer, Kathy Shears, Eleanor Schaefer, and Steve Dean enjoy the prom.

Mr. Steinhauser watches T.V. as he relaxes at the prom.

Dave Pelz is dressed in style.

LOOK AT IT THIS WAY — SOMEONE HAS TO PLAY THE PART OF A FLOWER IN THE CLASS PLAY.

A New Beginning

The road we travel is long and curved,
As we meet different things along the way, we react differently.
We don't know where it leads or what is at the end,
But we ask the people to help us get there.

There are places I'll remember all my life,
Though some have changed, some forever, not

Some have gone and some remain.
All these places had their moments,
With lovers and friends I still can recall.

Remember...the day in the subway.

Happiness is...leaving at six A.M.?

Seniors Visit the 'Big City'

On March 30th, 6 A.M., 37 excited seniors and their chaperones left for New York City. After a long 15 hours of traveling, they arrived at the Mc-Alpin Hotel. As the thrill of the "Big City" wore off they all rested for the big days ahead.

Saturday started out with a bus tour of midtown and downtown Manhattan. Some of the more famous sights toured were Chinatown and the United Nations Building. The rest of the day was free for sightseeing, shopping, parties, or just for resting. Then Sunday, everyone enjoyed the tour of the NBC Studios. After that the group started for the Lincoln Center of Performing Arts, but ended up spending THREE HOURS underground, trying to find the right subway. After touring Lincoln Center, the tired seniors just made the last boat to Liberty Island. Weary but happy they climbed to the top of the Statue of Liberty.

The trip was topped off by a theatre party at Radio City Music Hall. The unforgettable Rockettes and the movie "Tom Sawyer" were just a few of the programs included.

The Empire State Building Observatory had just closed and everyone was very disappointed. Early Monday morning everyone said, "good bye" to New York City as they started on the long trip home.

Reminiscing . . .

...all those statues and buildings.

...the only really good nap you got all weekend.

...when your camera just wouldn't work.

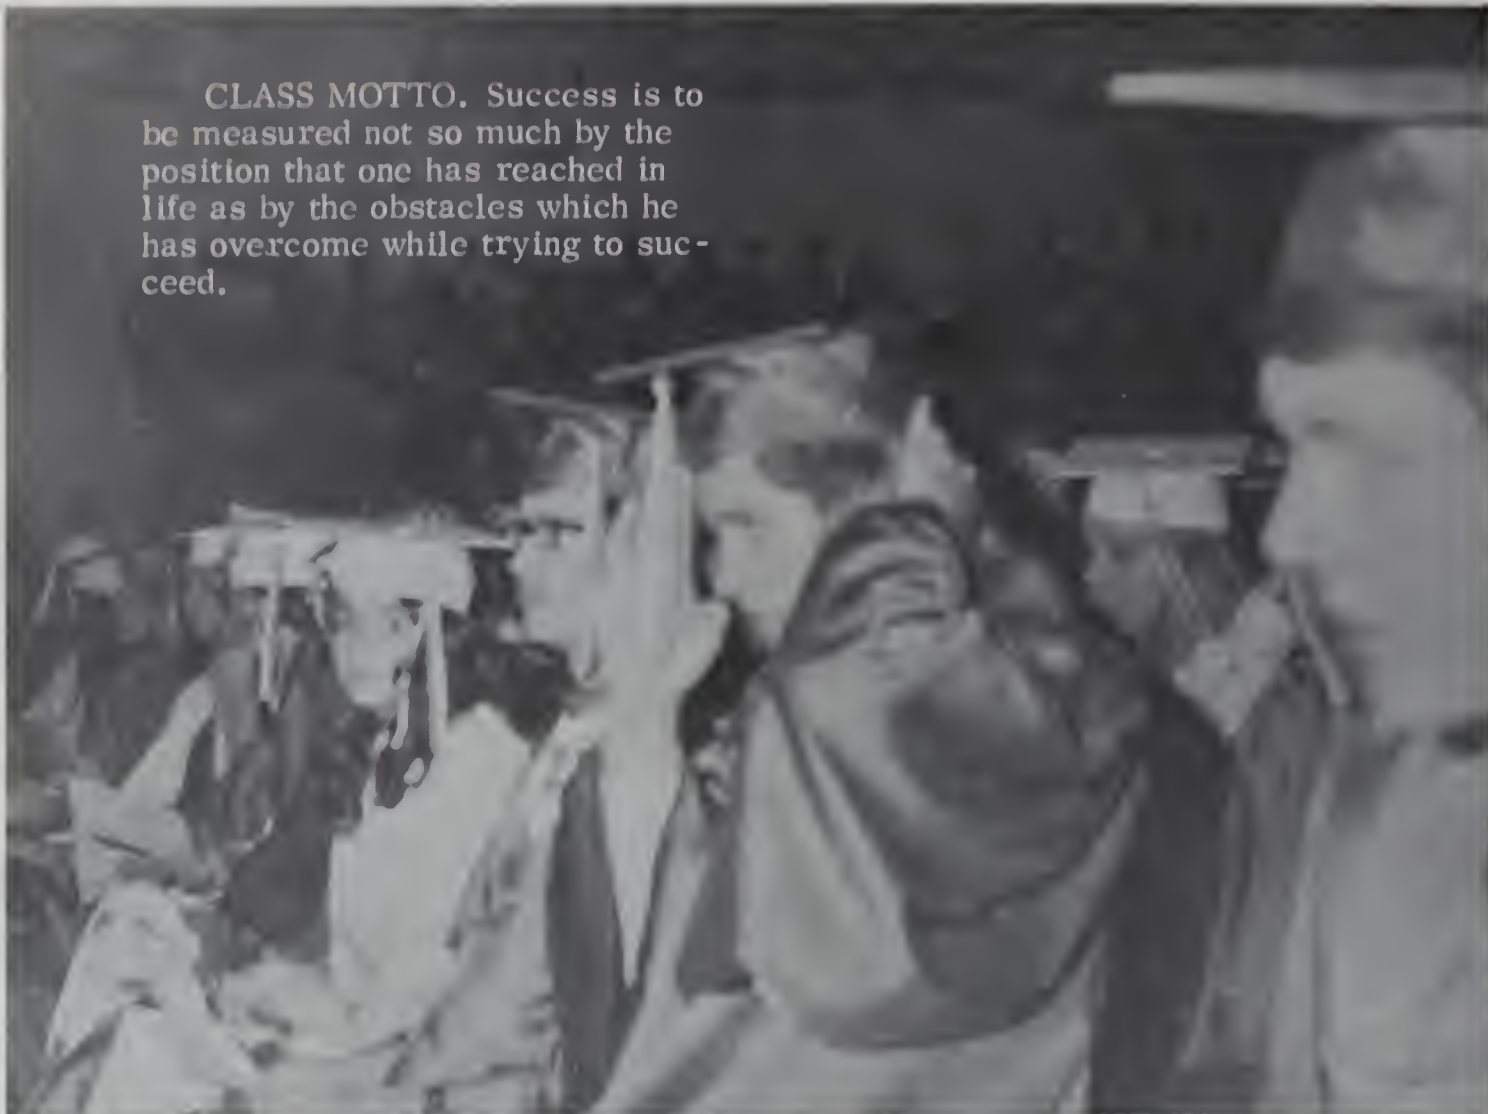

...the ferry ride to Liberty Island.

...the Chinese temple.

Last year's leading rebounder, Ron Bollier was sidelined with a football injury for the first seven games. During this time the team won four games and lost three.

The highlights of the year were the tourneys. In the County Tourney Leo beat Eastside, Homestead, and Carroll before losing to Southern Wells in the finals. The All-Conference selection was Ron Bollier for the third year in a row. In the Sectional Leo beat Carroll again and was beaten by Woodlan in overtime in the semi-final round. All-Sectional players were Ron Bollier and Loren Klopfenstein.

Department leaders were Rollie Minnick--field goal percent, 59.9%; free-throw percent, 75.0%; most rebounds, 278; Greg Platt--most assists, 129; total points, 315; Ron Bollier--best point-per-game average, 13.9. The key to a successful season was balance. Leo had four men averaging in double figures: Ron Bollier, 13.9; Greg Platt, 13.1; Rollie Minnick, 13.0; and Rod Burgess, 12.6. The team captain was Ron Bollier. The team ended the season with 14 wins and 10 losses.

1973 Oracle Staff and Co-editors

This year's ORACLE staff spent many long hours devoting their time and talents to putting this 1973 annual together. An annual staff must work to sell ads, get subscriptions, write and type copy, and draw layouts. The final product must be a record as well as a memory book for the students to look back on in the future.

The staff of the 1973 ORACLE is proud to present this book to you. They put in many long hours to make this book a memory book but also a book of facts--to tell it like it is.

This book would not be possible without the photography club, for what is a yearbook without pictures?

Diann Shoaff and Joy Gustin worked many hard and long hours getting just the right pictures so that you could remember school life as it happened.

Pam Sylvester and Cindy Tyrrell slaved over the senior section, hoping to make it one we'll all remember. Their section required much thought and time.

Maggie Evans and Richard Dewitt spent lots of time getting each and every individual pictured in their section. Much time was also spent drawing layouts and typing names to match pictures.

Lynn Nelson and Gina Morgan did a fantastic job, getting pictures of all the teachers and helpers, so that this book could show the important job these people really do. Besides all that they managed to work in pictures of school work as it really is.

Greg Platt, Kirk Zuber, and Keith Steininger made sure that each sport was covered in picture and copy. By working together they made it a great section to see and read.

Janell Brown and Kathy Zorger set up photography dates for all the organizational pictures. They also spent many hours drawing layouts and writing copy.

Tania Kohl, our business manager, started things rolling by setting up the ad sales. She worked long and hard keeping an accurate account of the ads as they were sold and the money we received for them.

We wish to express a big thank you to Mrs. Platt who suffered through it all. Believe us, it takes a lot of patience and understanding to suffer through all the hectic deadlines. Thanks staff, for your time and effort. We're sure it was worth it.

Co-editors,

Margaret & Cindy
